

Position Announcement

The GRADUATE PROGRAM IN COUNSELING at Messiah College invites applications for full-time term-tenure track positions in the Counseling program. Candidates with Counselor Education training who also have a background in clinical mental health counseling; marriage, couple, and family counseling; or school counseling are encouraged to apply. If hired, you will be joining a growing program which is taught primarily in an online format. Faculty in the program prioritize collegiality while striving to be excellent teachers and scholars who love working with and mentoring students.

Responsibilities: Teach Core Counseling graduate courses and courses in the candidate's area of expertise in our primarily online, CACREP Accredited, Counseling program. Teaching assignments will be determined based upon departmental need and the candidate's expertise and interests. Faculty members are also expected to supervise internships, maintain an active scholarly agenda, join the full-time faculty in teaching on-campus, intensive courses, advise graduate students, and engage in institutional service.

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Counselor Education preferred, but ABD considered. Preference will be given to those who graduated from a CACREP program and are licensed as a professional counselor or marriage and family therapist. Candidates are required to profess Christian faith, to commit to the mission of Messiah College, and to exhibit evidence of intercultural competencies. Preference will also be given to candidates who demonstrate excellence in teaching and scholarship, have experience in the appropriate field, and have previously taught in an online format.

Mission: The mission of the Messiah College Graduate Program in Counseling is to provide curricular experiences and a meaningful learning environment that prepare students to become competent counselors working with a variety of clients in multiple setting. The program is intended to develop students' awareness, knowledge, and skills to serve others through the counseling process and become skilled practitioners with a strong sense of professional and personal identity. To carry out this mission, the Graduate Program in Counseling offers three programs of study; clinical mental health counseling, marriage, couple, and family counseling, and school counseling. All of the programs are facilitated by educators who have experience in the field, set high expectations for students, implement a rigorous standard-based curriculum, and possess a desire to build authentic relationships with students. More information about the program is available at www.messiah.edu/counseling.

Starting Date for Position: Fall 2017

Compensation: Messiah College offers a strong benefits package in addition to salary and rank commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Applications: Application materials will be reviewed upon receipt and will be accepted until the position is filled. Please provide a current curriculum vitae as well as a letter of interest that clearly explains how your Christian faith represents a strong fit with the mission of Messiah College, which is "to educate men and women toward maturity of intellect, character and Christian faith in preparation for lives of service, leadership and reconciliation in church and society." Paper applications will not be accepted.
