

Assistant Professor of Counselor Education & Supervision

Job Summary:

This is a full time, contract renewable, non-tenure-track position in the Department of Applied Psychology and Counselor Education, located on our main campus in Greeley, Colorado. Responsibilities include teaching graduate courses in our CACREP accredited master's degree programs (Clinical Mental Health Counseling; Couples, Marriage, and Family Counseling/Therapy; and/or School Counseling programs). The successful candidate will serve in a nine-month renewable contract. Primary responsibilities include but are not limited to: teaching four (4) courses in the fall and four (4) courses in the spring semesters. This position includes advising students and engaging in service at the program level. There are no research expectations for this position. Individuals should demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively with others and possess a commitment to diversity and social justice. Individuals from underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. The successful candidate may also supervise practicum students in our on-site training clinic or in external placements. Teaching opportunities will also be available in our master's programs located in Denver and Colorado Springs.

Minimum Qualifications:

Earned doctorate in Counselor Education & Supervision from a CACREP accredited program by August 2016 OR a doctorate in a related field and employed as a full-time faculty member in a counselor education program for at least one academic year prior to July 1, 2013.

Preferred Qualifications:

Evidence of excellence in teaching.

Experience providing live supervision in an on-site training clinic (individual or couples/family)

Special Instructions to Applicants:

Applicants must complete the online application form at the link below and attach a letter of application highlighting suitability for the position, curriculum vitae, teaching philosophy, one recent publication or writing sample, and a list of three professional references with mail/email addresses and telephone numbers. Review of applications will begin October 15, 2016 and continue until position is filled. For more information or to apply to this position go to the posting link: <http://careers.unco.edu/postings/1116>

Contact for questions regarding the position may be referred to:

Betty Cardona, PhD., LPC

Department of applied Psychology & Counselor Education

Phone: 970.351.1627

Email: Betty.Cardona@unco.edu

Salary and Benefits:

Salary is commensurate with qualifications and experience. Benefits available include health, dental, life and long-term disability insurance, as well as a selection of several defined contribution retirement programs. Dependents and spouses of UNC Employees who are employed as 0.5 FTE or above are entitled to and eligible for Dependent Tuition Grants. These tuition grants will cover in-state tuition charges. Further requirements may exist. Other benefits may be available based on position.

Additional Requirements :

Satisfactory completion of a background check, educational check, and authorization to work in the United States is required after a conditional offer of employment has been made. The successful candidate must submit original transcripts within one (1) month of hire.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Contact:

University of Northern Colorado

Online App. Form:

<http://careers.unco.edu/postings/1116>